St. Clair Street, Kaltenbrun's Block, Frankfort, Ky.

The first ice of the season formed Wednesday morning in this city.

The Water Company are rapidly laying their mains in South Frankfort.

The cool weather will cause the farmers to begin slaughtering hogs in a few days.

Mr. J. C. Coleman wishes to sell a house and lot on Steele street. Read his advertisement.

Mr. W. L. Collins bought the first of the week of J. L. Cogar, of Woodford, one ear load of hogs at $4.25 per hundred.

Uncle Jack Glone has been sick at home for a week or more and did not get to hurrah for "John C." during all the excitement.

Rev. Dr. J. McC. Blayney will preach at the chapel in Leestown tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

The election passed off very quietly here Tuesday, no one getting up enthusiasm enough to raise a shout during the whole day.

One hundred and fifty tobacco barns have been built in Scott county the past summer and nearly as many have gone up in this county.

The election news seems to have absorbed every other kind of news, and about killed business for the time being, except for news dealers.

Mr. B. V. Leiben will open a new European Restaurant in Gobber's new building, on the corner of Broadway and Lewis streets, on the 15th inst.

Rev. J. M. Lewis is conducting a protracted meeting at Mt. Vernon Church, in Fayette county. There has been 12 additions to the Church so far.

A great deal of betting was done here on the election but we have not heard of any one getting as reckless as two men in Midway—betting themselves on the result.

Elder James Fall, of Russellville, Ky., will preach at the Christian Church, in Fayette county, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The usual service at 7 p. m. by the pastor of the Church.

"Micaliz," the interesting and exciting drama, with Mr. Newton Gotthold in the dual role, will be produced at the Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 10th. Reserved seats at Barrett's.

Mr. Gotthold's dual impersonation in "Micaliz" is one of the most intelligent, conscientious and strong characterizations seen here this season. He and his play deserve the popular success they are obtaining.

We are glad to be able to state that Judge R. E. Gaines, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, is a great deal better. His wife's health, we are sorry to say, is not improving very rapidly.

C. W. Fincel is now ready to fill land cans for his customers and all others who delight in a pure and beautifully white lard, at a reasonable price. Call at his meat store, 329 Market street, and see his lard and price before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. Newton Gotthold, supported by John S. Leese's Dramatic Company, have been playing at McAuley's Theatre for the last week. All the Louisville papers throughout the week speak in the highest term of Mr. Gotthold and Company.

On Thursday afternoon and night the Democrats had a big demonstration over the election news. Cannons were fired and crowds paraded the streets yelling and firing off crackers, Roman candles, &c. The din and clatter was kept up nearly all night.

Mr. Jas. W. Blackburn, of Woodford county, and Miss Hallie W. Craddock, youngest daughter of Judge G. W. Craddock, will be married on Tuesday evening next, November 11th, at the Methodist Church, at 8 o'clock.

Roll of honor in Miss Stella E. Gohber's grade, for week ending November 7th: Nora Magill, Annie Magill, Currie Moyers, Lindsey Blayney, Annie Abrahams, Agnes Brawner, Linda Calvert, Louie Drame, Lottie Evans, Flossie French, Sadie Grant, Frances Wallace, John Bull, Martin Hardin.

PLEASANT HOLLOW, Nov. 6, 1884.

Editor Roundabout:

DEAR SIR: The people out here want Nix to explain how that medium acted; what it was that came out and brought bouquets, kissed people, &c. They want to know the whole thing.

Yours,

SOFT HEAD.

Bridgeport.

The election passed off quietly in this place.

Mr. Able Armstrong remains quite feeble.

Another wedding the first day of January, 1885.

Old Uncle Winston Vaughn, now in his 81st year, is quite ill.

Mrs. Sue Watts, of Missouri, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Geo. W. Sudduth has returned home from a visit to Louisville.

Daisy Parent and Emma Russell have recovered from their recent illness.

Mrs. Dr. Chinn and Mrs. Laura Flanagan are visiting relatives in Winchester.

Mrs. Jennie Allen and children, of Lexington, are visiting her father's family.

The present cold weather reminds one very forcibly of the fact that winter is near at hand.

Willie Crockett, of Jessamine county, has returned home from a visit to relatives in their section.

Mrs. Mollie Farmer has returned to her home in Lawrenceburg, from a visit to her father's family near this place.

Mr. James Smith and wife and Misses Mattie and Mary Lynn Robb, of Mercer county, attended the Dupuy-Crockett wedding last Wednesday.

Messrs. J. C. Major and P. H. Parent better known as Crit and Henry, who have been residing in Helena, Montana, for several years, are visiting friends and relatives in this and Anderson counties.

Married.—At the residence, of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sallie Crockett, near Frankfort, Ky., November 5th, 1884, by Rev. Neul, of Shelbyville, Mr. Wilder Dupuy and Miss Sue Crockett.

We congratulate the happy pair, and invoke the blessings of heaven on the union.

Antioch.

Sweet potatoes and opsums on hand.

Mrs. Joe Bryant is visiting relatives in Tiger this week.

Mrs. Updyke, of Peak's Mill, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Sallie Snellon and daughter, Miss Ida, spent last week with their sisters, Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Bryant.

Notwithstanding the weather there was a good crowd at the Sunday-school last Sunday. Why not run that school all winter?

Mr. James Marshall moved into the Lewis neighborhood, from Shelby county, last week. We are sorry to hear that he is in feeble health.

The singing class met at Mr. James Glone's last Sunday night week, at Mr. Henry Spalding's last Saturday night, and at Mr. Geo. Roach's last Sunday night.

We would like to know if Frankfort has all the brains of this county, that we must go there for suitable persons for the Legislature. Why do not the country people unite on some intelligent farmers and elect them as Senators and Representatives. Surely Frankfort people would not, or at least should not, object to this. Turn about, as the boys say, is fair play.

Our attention has been called several times lately to the fact that there are some young persons who attend the Sunday school and singing class that spend the time in making sport of others present. Such conduct is ungentlemanly and unladylike in any one. We should all remember the old Scotch adage, which says: "Oh that God the gift would give us to see ourselves as others see us."

Your Stoney Creek correspondent took us to task a few weeks past on a mistake we made. Now "those who live in glass houses should not throw stones." We have been requested to correct the statement he made in regard to Eld. J. A. Peters opening and closing his last meeting at Pleasant Ridge, without prayer. We are informed by several who were present that Bro. Peters opened the services himself with prayer and at the close called on a certain brother to close with prayer; this brother called on another and during the prayer some in the back part of the house thinking the meeting had closed, rose to leave. Were you back there, brother Cor., or were there two much spirits under your belt that day. We gain our information from some who are members of that Church.

To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Hatton.

Editor Roundabout:

DEAR NEPHEW: The people of this part of Shelby county have a new disease so strange that it puzzles the Doctors of Divinity. This malady broke out in this part of Kentucky on the 18th day of October, 1884. Symptoms: as soon as the poor unfortunates are attacked with this dreadful disease they at once leave home and flee to the city and at very strange. Some of them will actually strike their best friends. They are jaded with money and talk foolish. You know that in cities there are a few men that wear blue clothes. These gentlemen with these buttons will take one of these poor unfortunate human beings and put him in a big stone house at the foot of Fort Hill, and lock them up all night, where they curse and fight. What a shame that the city dais allow them to be treated so badly. In a great many instances these poor sick people are members of the two Churches near Hatton, who have the knee to God on Sunday. I know, my dear nephew, you are ready to say that they were drunk, but such was not the case, for they are members of the two Churches located near this place. Your uncle Zeke knows better. My opinion is that they are diseased seriously. This new feverish disease strikes their lunacy organ, and that is why they act so badly. They are crazy. Now, my dear nephew, the reasons for saying what I do are as follows: When they are all right in their lunacy organ you can't induce them to spend their money foolishly. For instance, the pastor did his best to induce them to give some money for the cause of Christ, and many a real cent could he get. One old brother said he could not give but 25 cents; he had to borrow money; another one said he did not have a cent. Now, my dear sir, are not my reasons for saying that they were crazy good?

I'm in trouble about this terrible scourge. Will you please consult some of the doctors of Frankfort about this matter. If you learn anything that will do them good, please publish it in your valuable paper.

The above bears so hard on my mind that I can't collect my thoughts in regard to news.

We had a wedding near Hatton October 14th. The parties were Mr. Frank Yount and Miss Sue Mitchell. May they live long and die happy, is the wish of Zeke Yount.

Died.—On the 17th day of October, 1884, William Lillis, aged seventy-five years, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude. He was an honest, upright man in all of his dealings. He leaves a widow and seven children. May they prepare to meet their father in a better land.

Have you heard anything of your Aunt Polly Yount? When last heard from she was making speeches for Mr. Lockwood. I told you how it would out allowing her to write for a newspaper. You have done your uncle Zeke wrong.

Strayed, stolen or runaway.—Mrs. Polly Yount, without all persons against harboring said Polly or from crediting her on my account, as I will not be responsible for said debts.

ZEKE YOUNT.

An Editor's Experience.

After trying numerous remedies for rheumatism, I, without permanent relief, was advised to use S. S. S., which had given permanent relief to others suffering from rheumatism. After taking half a dozen bottles I found that the disease was entirely driven out of my system, and a permanent cure secured. This was over a year ago, and since then, even during our most severe weather, with sudden changes, I have never suffered a return of the old attacks which disabled me from editorial work.

It is very seldom, indeed, that I recommend anything to the public in this manner, but I feel it due to your valuable preparation, that has given me such long desired and much needed relief, to state these facts thus publicly. I am sure that but for your Specific, I should have been laid aside from journalistic work, as the severest attack was in my right arm and hand.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not get up without aid. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work." "Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle. Jos. LeCompte's Drug Store.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Jos. LeCompte.
